

Hungerford Road Area

Community Survey

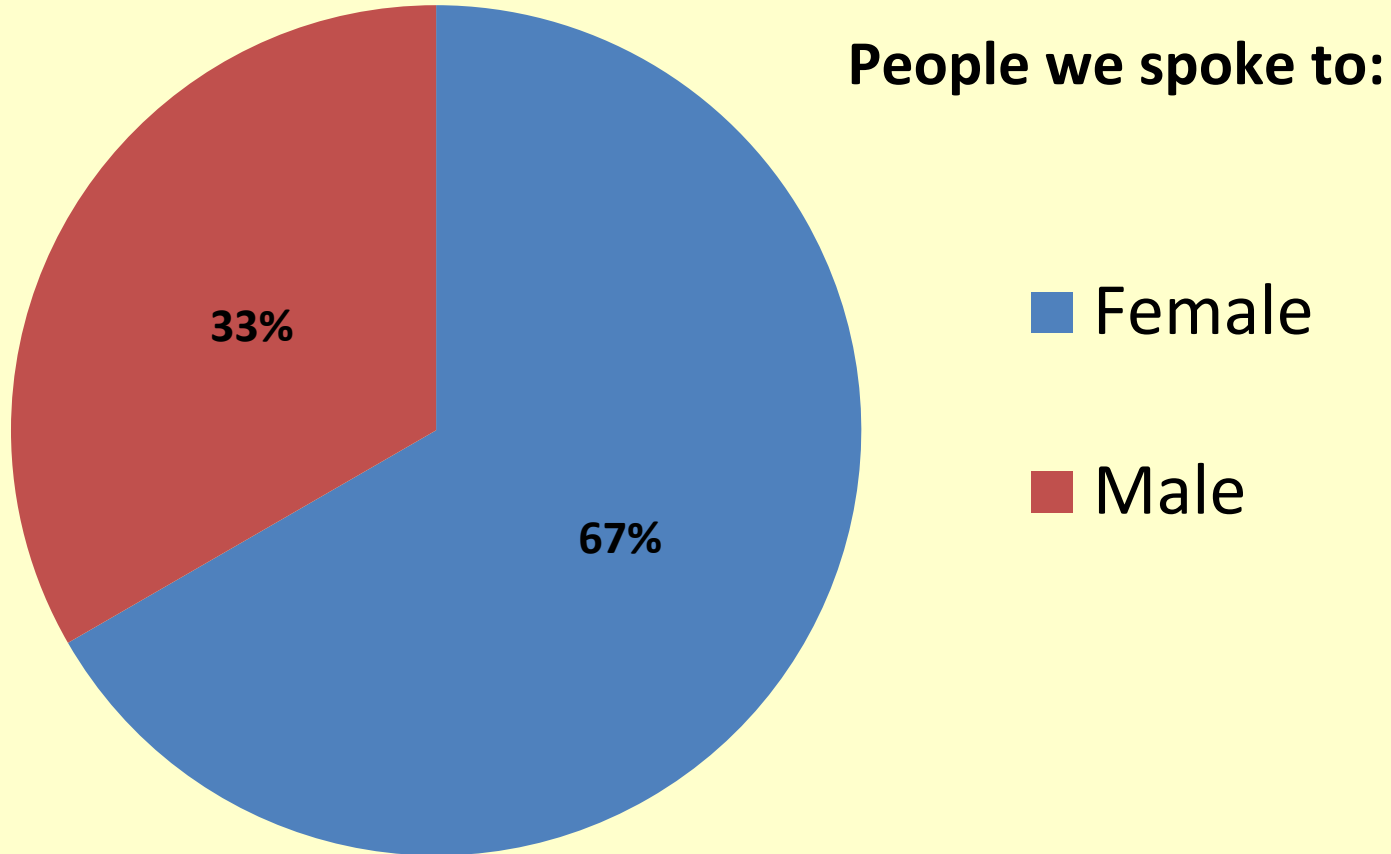

Magdalena Kowalik-Malcolm

Bristol City Council

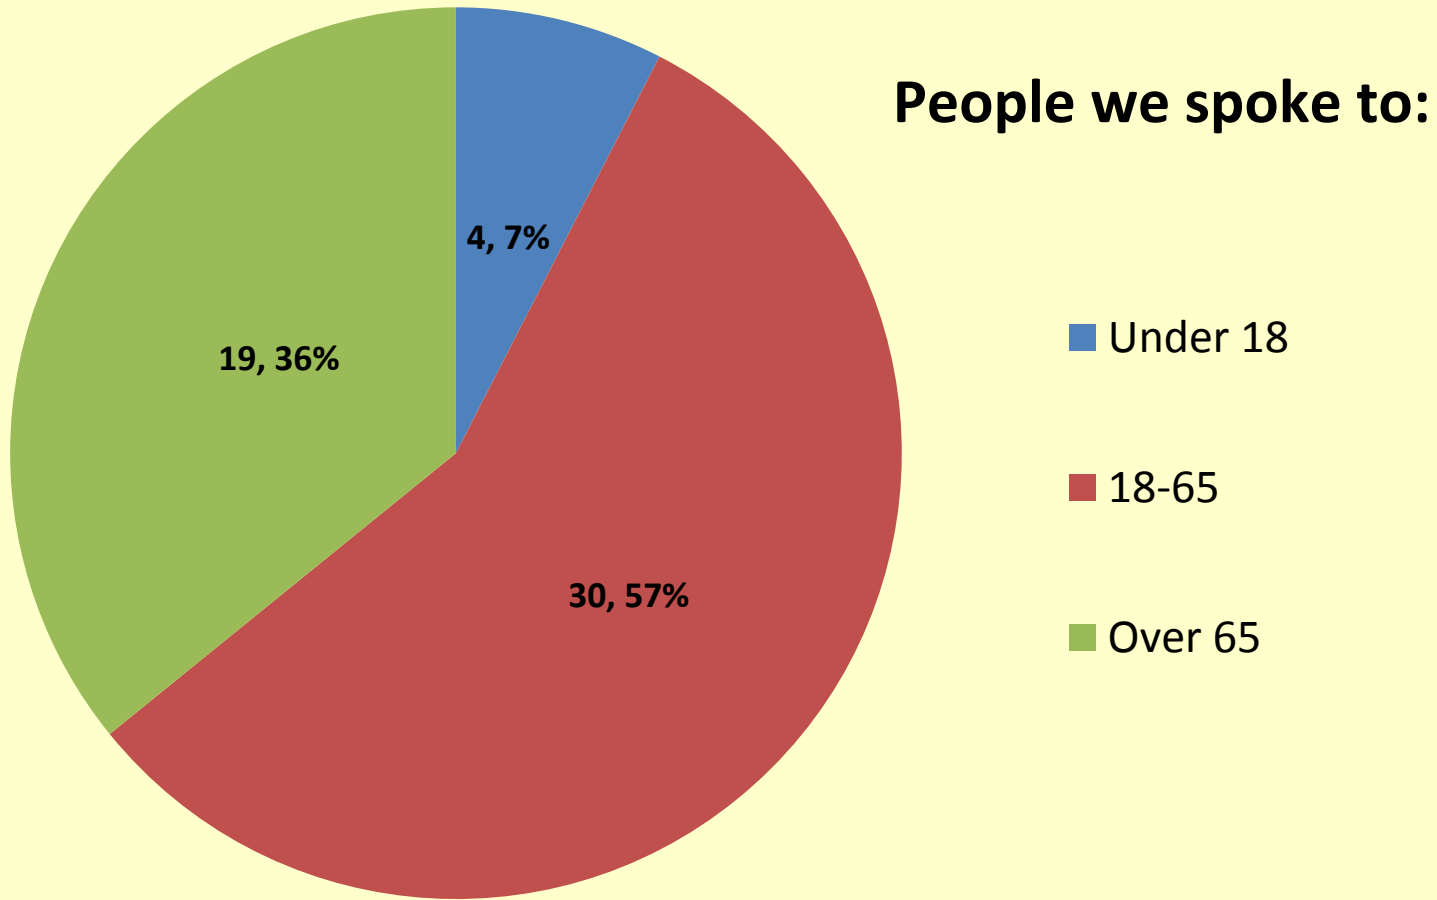

Hungerford Road Area

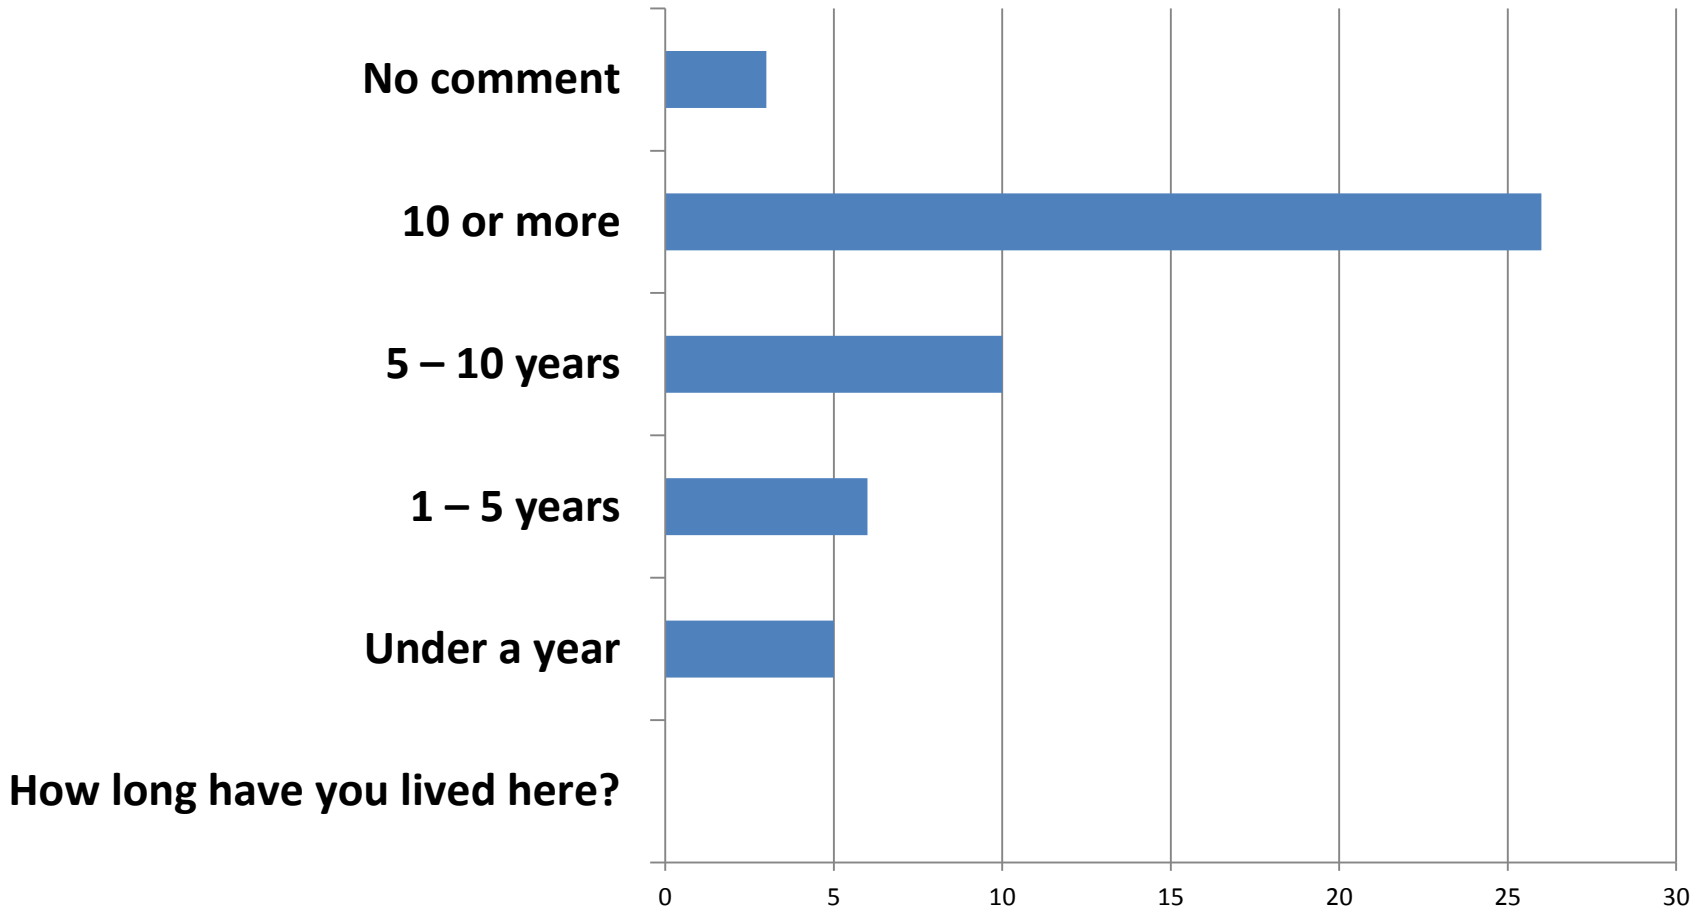

Survey, August 2015

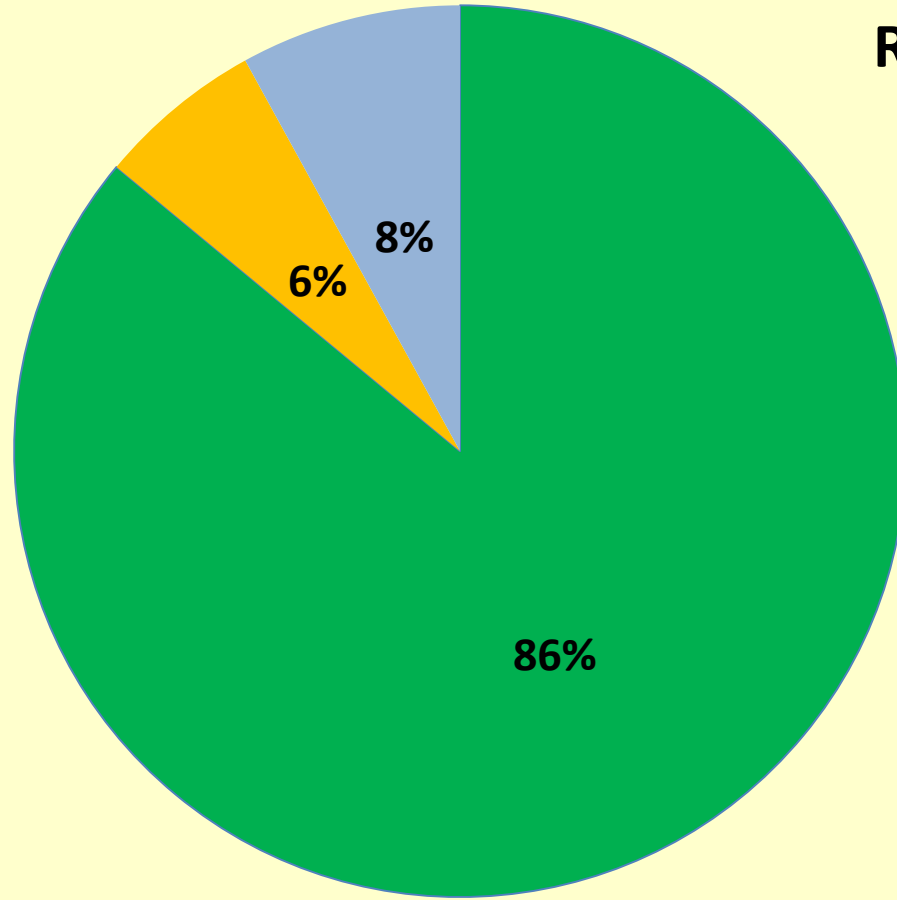

Survey, August 2015

Survey, August 2015

Survey, August 2015

Residents' feelings about Hungerford Road area

■ Positive about the area

■ Negative about the area

■ No comment

Local concerns

“My neighbourhood”

“It’s a nice community”

“Beautiful playground”

“good public transport”

“nice and quiet, peaceful, lovely wildlife”

“I grew up on the estate, all my life here”

“friendly place, nice people”

Community Centre today

“I don’t go there because I don’t drink”

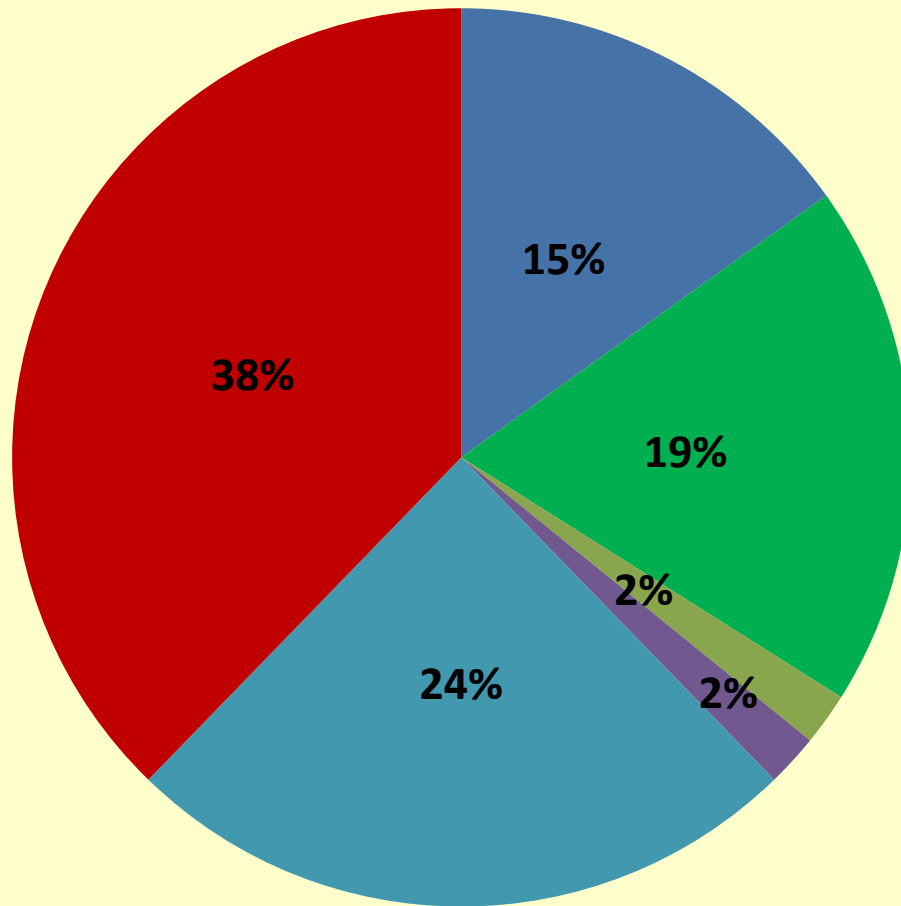

“My dad helped to build it!”

“We need more activities for children and the elderly”

“I used to go there when my children were little”

How do you use Hungerford Road Community Centre?

■ Socialising / drinking

■ Room hire

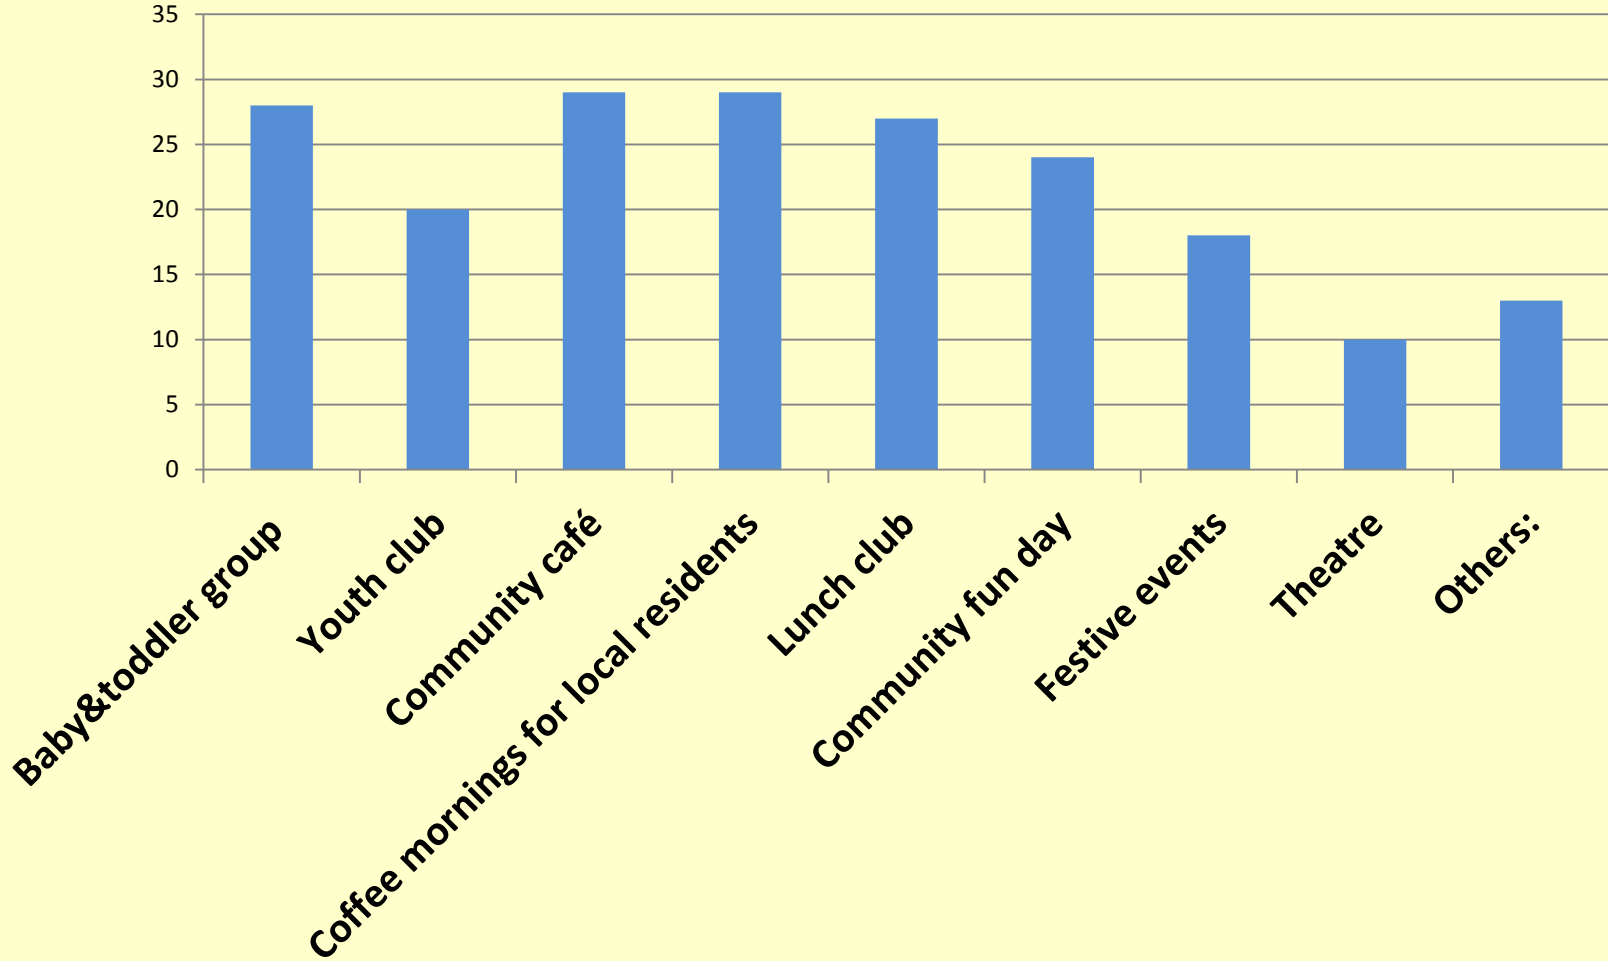

■ Toddler's Group

■ Kid's Club

■ Other (mainly voting)

■ Not at all

What local activities would you like to see in the Hungerford Road area?

Your interests

gardening

Your other ideas for the community

A word cloud of community activity ideas on a black background. The words are in various colors (orange, red, yellow, green, white) and orientations (horizontal, vertical). The words include: boxing, bookClub, familyNights, martialArt, weightWatchers, newsagent, advertisingBoard, cakeMaking, FriendsGroupfortheElderly, holidayClubs, bingo, sport, slimmingWorld, crochetingClub, streetParty, gymnastics, dancingquizNights, localShop, artClub, and karate.

boxing
bookClub familyNights martialArt weightWatchers
newsagent advertisingBoard cakeMaking FriendsGroupfortheElderly holidayClubs bingo sport slimmingWorld crochetingClub streetParty gymnastics dancingquizNights localShop
artClub karate discos

Survey's key findings for the area

More community-centred activities:

- Things to do and go to for the elderly
- More groups and activities for children and young people
- Developing residents' interest groups and schemes, such as Good Garden Award
- Community fun day

Development of the area

- Better usage of the community assets
- Newsagent needed
- Parking and traffic concerns
- Lighting in the Play Area

50th Anniversary of the Community Centre!

