Context

The detail of the application is as follows:

The application was accompanied by a Basic Disclosure issued under section 112 of the Police Act 1997. The Disclosure recorded an unspent criminal conviction which fell within the definition of a relevant offence under section 113 of the Licensing Act 2003.

In accordance with section 120(4) a notice was served on the Chief Officer of Police that the applicant, Miss Moore, failed to meet the requirement prescribed by s120(2)(d) of the Act, namely that she had not been convicted of any relevant offence or any foreign offence.

On 25 August 2016 the licensing authority received an objection notice from the Chief Officer of Police under s120(5) of the Act stating that the grant of the licence would undermine the crime prevention objective.

Recommendations

That the subcommittee meet its duty under section 120(7) of The Act to:

- hold a hearing to consider the objection notice, unless the applicant, the chief officer of police and the authority agree that it is unnecessary
- having regard to the notice —
 - (i) reject the application if it considers it necessary for the promotion of the crime prevention objective to do so, and
 - (ii) grant the application in any other case.
- Following determination of the application take the below steps:
 - (1) Where a licensing authority grants an application—
 - (a) it must give the applicant and the chief officer of police for its area a notice to that effect, and
 - (b) if the chief officer of police gave an objection notice (which was not withdrawn), the notice under paragraph (a) must contain a statement of the licensing authority's reasons for granting the application.
 - (2) A licensing authority which rejects an application must give the applicant and the chief officer of police for its area a notice to that effect containing a statement of the authority's reasons for rejecting the application.
